Camp High Hopes' Spring Open House is a big success with campers and the community

Sioux City, IA – Camp High Hopes held its annual Spring Open House and Easter Scavenger Hunt on Saturday, April 15th. The camp opened its doors to campers, their friends and families, and the community to check out everything the camp has to offer.

Nearly 350 people stopped by the camp on a beautiful, sunny day. They collected candy, met the Easter Bunny, and enjoyed free activities like egg painting, fishing, and archery. It was also a chance for people to tour the 90-acre camp that sits on the eastern edge of Sioux City, Iowa.

“Our Spring Open House and Easter Scavenger Hunt is not only a great way for our campers and their families to enjoy a day of fun, but for the community, too,” says Chris Liberto, Camp High Hopes Executive Director. “We really want the community to come out and see what we are all about. We have so much to offer so many different kinds of people, and this is a great way for Siouxlanders to see everything we have here at Camp High Hopes.”

While many places offer a traditional Easter egg hunt, Camp High Hopes offers an Easter candy scavenger hunt. This is to allow all of the camp's campers, including those in wheelchairs and other mobility devices, to collect candy and Easter prizes. During the scavenger hunt, Camp High Hopes gave out hundreds of pounds of candy and nearly 3,000 Easter stickers!

Camp High Hopes offers individuals and groups, barrier-free recreational experiences that are fun, safe, and adaptive for children, teens, and adults with disabilities and special needs in the Siouxland area.
