4th Annual Haunted Lodge Party Raises $58,000 for Camp High Hopes

Sioux City, IA – Local businesses battled it out on stage on Saturday, October 17th to be the reigning Lip Sync Champion all in an effort to raise funds for Camp High Hopes. Teams from Mercy Medical Center, Sterk Financial, Arthur J. Gallagher & Co., are just some of the notable businesses that lip synced in costume to their favorite songs. The audience voted Team Arthur J. Gallagher & Co as the reigning champion of the battle.

The Camp's 4th Annual Haunted Lodge Party Fundraiser was held Saturday, October 17th at the Marina Inn in South Sioux City. This year's presenting sponsor was Regina Roth.

More than 300 people attended the adult Halloween-themed costume party. In addition to the lip sync battle, the party also included a costume contest, psychic, magicians, and a silent auction of ceramic pumpkins painted by local artists.

The $58,000 in proceeds raised as a result of the event will help to provide sponsorships for kids and adults with physical and intellectual disabilities to attend a day or overnight session at the special needs camp in Sioux City. Camp High Hopes offers camper-focused, barrier free recreational experiences that are fun, safe and adaptive for children, teen and adults with disabilities in the tri-state region.
