October 28, 2019
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Camp High Hopes 8th Annual Haunted Lodge Party Raises More Than $138,000

Sioux City, IA – Oh, what a night! The 8th annual Camp High Hopes Haunted Lodge Party was a bone-chilling success! The camp for people with disabilities hosted the yearly event on Saturday, October 26th at the Delta Hotels by Marriott South Sioux City Riverfront. Siouxland’s premier Halloween party raised more than $139,000 for the Sioux City camp. Seaboard Triumph Foods, Perdue, and the Jim and Mette Malek Foundation once again showed their support for this great event as the presenting sponsors.

The nearly 300 people who attended the fang-tastic event were treated to an evening of taunts and terrors. Five couples competed for great prizes, including a trip to Florida, during the Not-So Newlywed Game, amazing costumes mesmerized the crowd, the daring got a glimpse into their future with a reading from Psychic Suzanna, and pumpkin carver, Luke Schroder, dazzled the room with his works of art, and the New Stage Players performed a boo-tiful Ghostbuster dance number.

The $138,000 raised from this year’s Haunted Lodge Party will go directly to benefit the campers at Camp High Hopes. It will provide necessary equipment, supplies, transportation, meals, and activities for campers while they attend life-changing camp sessions in the spring, summer, and fall. Camp High Hopes offers camper-focused, barrier-free recreational experiences that are fun, safe, and adaptive for children, teens, and adults with disabilities in the Siouxland region.
