Camp High Hopes Announces Its 2020 Smiles Ambassadors

Sioux City, IA – Camp High Hopes announced its 2020 Smiles Ambassadors at a special ceremony on Thursday. The camp named 12-year-old Brooklyn Steinfeldt of Sioux City as the 2020 Youth Smiles Ambassador and nineteen-year-old Jess Gibson of Wayne, Nebraska as the 2020 Adult Smiles Ambassador. As the newly named Smiles Ambassadors, Brooklyn and Jess will help to raise awareness and represent Camp High Hopes, and all of its special needs campers, by participating in various events throughout the Siouxland community in 2020.

This is the seventh year that Camp High Hopes, a year-round camp in Sioux City for people with disabilities, has celebrated its Smiles Ambassadors program.

“The Smiles Ambassador ceremony is something our team looks forward to each and every year,” says Chris Liberto, the Executive Director of Camp High Hopes. “It’s a tradition that has come to mean a lot to not only our campers, but their friends, family members, and caretakers. We are honored to have Brooklyn and Jess serve as volunteer Smiles Ambassadors for 2020.”

Be sure to watch for Brooklyn and Jess throughout the year at various events representing the more than 1,800 campers that have experienced the therapeutic benefits of recreation at Camp High Hopes.

Camp High Hopes offers year-round, barrier-free recreational experiences that are fun, safe, and adaptive for children, teens, and adults with disabilities, special needs, and chronic illnesses in the Midwest region.
