Camp High Hopes Announces New Executive Director

Sioux City, IA – Camp High Hopes is pleased to announce a change in leadership. The Board of Directors has hired Sarah Morgan as the new Executive Director. Morgan is taking over the position after Chris Liberto accepted a Regional Development Director position with the University of Notre Dame and is moving out of Siouxland.

Morgan has been with Camp High Hopes for nearly six years. During her time as the Advancement Director, Morgan grew the camp's fundraising efforts, expanded its marketing reach, and added many new elements and needs to camp.

"I believe in camp and what we do, so I am thrilled to continue our mission of providing amazing experiences for people with disabilities and special needs," says Morgan. "I want to express my gratitude to our campers, their families, our donors, supporters, and Board of Directors for the years of support they have given me and Camp High Hopes. Chris has left big shoes to fill, and I thank him for his selfless service to camp for nearly six years. He has left camp in a better place. He will be missed."

"On behalf of the Board of Directors for Camp High Hopes, I extend our sincere thanks to Chris Liberto for his service to camp and all that was accomplished under his stewardship," says Jack Ehrich, Camp High Hopes' Board President. "Because of Chris's leadership and foresight, camp is in a position to thrive for many years to come, and we wish him and his family nothing but the best in their future endeavors. There is also no one better than Sarah Morgan to take over as Executive Director at camp. She has proven time and time again to be a dedicated advocate for our mission, campers, and their families. We are all excited to work with her for many years to come and continue to make Camp High Hopes a place for all."

The camp's staff, board members, and campers wish Liberto all the best. His last day at camp was January 12th. Morgan moved to her new role on January 13th.

Hiring for Morgan's replacement has begun. More information can be found at camphighhopes.com.

The camp has a full schedule of camps and events planned for 2022. Registration is now open for spring and summer camp sessions.
